November 19, 2022

IAATO Response to Tragic Incident in Antarctica

IAATO is saddened to learn of an incident near Cape Lookout, Elephant Island, resulting in two passenger fatalities.

The incident, on November 15, occurred during a small boat excursion from expedition vessel World Explorer, chartered by IAATO member operator Quark Expeditions.

This tragedy has been deeply felt by our community and at this time our thoughts are with those directly involved.

E nds -